

Website Resource List

NATIVE GENERATIONS

The Native Generations campaign emphasizes connection to culturally-grounded health care and community services to promote healthy families and prevent infant deaths among American Indians and Alaska Natives.

This Website Resource List provides support and resources to new or expecting parents and child caregivers.

American Indian/Alaska Native Specific Resources

Breastfeeding for American Indian and Alaska Native Families booklet (U.S. Department of Health and Human Services)

<http://www.womenshealth.gov/publications/our-publications/breastfeeding-guide/BreastfeedingGuide-NativeAmerican-English.pdf>

Coming of the Blessing

www.comingoftheblessing.com/Resources.html

Native Breastfeeding Council

www.nativebreastfeeding.org

Honor the Past, Learn for the Future: Reduce the Risk of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome flyer

https://www.nichd.nih.gov/publications/pubs/documents/HNB_flyer.pdf

Safe Sleep For Your Baby brochure (U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development)

https://www.nichd.nih.gov/publications/pubs/Documents/SafeSleepForYourBaby_AIAN_2012.pdf

Please contact us if you have ideas for resources to add here!

General Websites

Information for pregnancy and after the baby arrives (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention)

http://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/pregnancy_gateway/after.html

Website Resource List

Questions & Answers for health topics on pregnancy and after baby is born - includes sections just for dads (National Healthy Babies, Healthy Mothers Coalition)

<http://www.hmhb.org/family.html>

Text4Baby – Weekly health tips during pregnancy and one year after your baby is born (National Healthy Babies, Healthy Mothers Coalition)

<http://www.text4baby.org/>

Information about diabetes during pregnancy (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention)

http://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/pregnancy_gateway/diabetes-gestational.html

Postpartum depression information (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention)

<http://www.cdc.gov/reproductivehealth/Depression/>

Resources about services and support for families (Maternal & Child Health Library at Georgetown University)

http://www.mchlibrary.info/families/frb_pregnancy.html

Parenting resources for new dads (National Fatherhood Initiative)

<http://www.fatherhood.org/fathers/how-to-be-a-dad/dads-to-be>

Community Services Locator (Maternal & Child Health Library at Georgetown University)

http://www.mchlibrary.info/KnowledgePaths/kp_community.html

Healthy Start - Community-based maternal and child health programs

http://www.nationalhealthystart.org/healthy_start_initiative/project_directory

WIC (Women, Infants and Children) - Special Supplemental Nutrition Program

<http://www.fns.usda.gov/wic/>

Child Care Aware – Child care resources

<http://childcareaware.org/parents-and-guardians>

(Also finding help paying for child care - information about financial assistance available)

National Sudden Unexplained Infant Death (SUID) / Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) Resource Center

<http://www.sidscenter.org/families.html>

Protect the Ones you Love - Safety information (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention)

<http://www.cdc.gov/SafeChild/>

Help for domestic violence (National Network to end Domestic Violence)

<http://www.nnedv.org/resources/stats/gethelp/ifyouarebeingabused.html>

Child Help – Prevention and treatment of child abuse

<http://www.childhelp.org/pages/shaken-baby-syndrome1>