Trainings

Webinar: Accessing and Using Viral Hepatitis and Sexually Transmitted Infection (STI) Surveillance Data; Today, June 20, 2011, 11 a.m. Pacific Time

Accessing and Using Viral Hepatitis and STI Surveillance Data, will be hosted today, June 20, 2011, at 11 a.m. Pacific Time with guest speaker Dr. Melanie Taylor, Medical Epidemiologist, from IHS National STD Program.

- Visit the webinar instructions page for information on how to join the webinar.
- This is part of a series of webinars hosted by the Seattle Indian Health Board's Urban Indian Health Institute to support prevention, screening and treatment efforts for viral hepatitis, HIV and other sexually transmitted infections. These webinars are a part of the UIHI's Viral Hepatitis and STI Prevention Project.
- All webinars are free, open to the public and will be archived for future viewing.

Announcements and Opportunities

Plan from the Urban Indian Health Summit

The Seattle Indian Health Board is pleased to announce the release of the report, Actualizing Health Care Reform for Urban Indians: An Action Plan from the Urban Indian Health Summit. Developed from the Urban Indian Heath Summit, a health care reform event held in January 2011 in Washington D.C., this report serves as a Call for Action that outlines strategies to ensure the success of health care reform for urban Indians. It is intended to prompt an ongoing discussion that is responsive to feedback from urban Indians, the organizations that serve them, urban Indian health professionals, practitioners and others.

- Electronic copies of the report are available on the Urban Indian Health Summit website.
- Paper copies of the report are available upon request, and will also be available at the Seattle Indian Health Board’s 6th Annual National Urban Indian Health Conference, July 26th and 27th in Seattle, WA.

The Seattle Indian Health Board would like to thank the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation for its sponsorship of the Urban Indian Health Summit and production of the report.

The National Prevention Strategy: America’s Plan for Better Health and Wellness

On June 16, 2011 the National Prevention, Health Promotion, and Public Health Council, announced the release of the first ever National Prevention Strategy, a comprehensive plan that will help increase the number of Americans who are healthy at every stage of life.

- To learn how you can become part of America’s Plan for Better Health and Wellness, read the National Prevention Strategy.
- More information on the National Prevention Strategy can be found here.

More reports, resources and other information can be found on the UIHI website, www.uihi.org