

Resources and Opportunities

Provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute
A division of the Seattle Indian Health Board

24 October, 2011

This e-mail is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this e-mail was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Conferences

2nd Annual Spirit of Giving Conference:

Celebrating Partnerships in Culture and Integrated Health Care

The Native American Rehabilitation Association (NARA) will be hosting the second annual Spirit of Giving conference October 30th - November 2nd, 2011. The conference features integrated cultural health service models for service providers, policy makers, and leaders in healthcare.

NARA's philosophy is based on the belief that the community deserves health care which is coordinated and effective to address physical, cultural, and emotional wellness. In the Spirit of Giving there are no registration fees. To learn more about this conference and to register please click here.

Grants

Be the Generation Bridge Request for Applications

The National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) in partnership with Legacy Project and FHI 360/HIV Prevention Trials Network (HPTN), has formed the "Be the Generation Bridge" program. This will allow organizations to work with NIAID-funded clinical trials prevention sites to apply for resources through a competitive grant process. Click here for more information.

Resources

Synthesis of Research and Resources to Support At-Risk Youth

The Administration for Children and Families (ACF) released a new report. This report provides a synthesis of research and existing ACF resources for serving at-risk youth. It includes: current research about at-risk youth, how at-risk youth are currently being served by ACF programs and by programs outside of ACF, and issues to consider in creating conceptual frameworks for developing and enhancing ACF programs that serve at-risk youth. Click here to read the report.

Honor Our Voices

Minnesota Center Against Violence and Abuse presents this online training to present children's perspectives of violence. This training provides key issues and promising practices in working with children exposed to domestic violence. Click here for more information.

More reports, resources and other information can be found on the UIHI website, www.uihi.org

Urban Indian Health Institute
Seattle Indian Health Board
1225 S Weller St, Suite 510
Seattle, Washington 98144
(206) 812-3030