Resources and Opportunities

Provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute
A Division of the Seattle Indian Health Board

August 13, 2012

This e-mail is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this e-mail was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Training

American Indian Physicians Creating Healthy, Active Native Communities Webinar

This Association of American Indian Physicians webinar will highlight a new policy brief that will assist healthcare providers in making positive policy, systems and environmental changes in the areas of nutrition, physical activity and breastfeeding both in and outside of the clinic.

There is no cost for the webinar.
Grant Opportunity

HHS/Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health: FY13 Announcement of Anticipated Availability of Funds for Family Planning Services Grant

This announcement seeks applications from public and private nonprofit entities to establish and operate voluntary family planning services projects with priority for services to persons from low-income families. American Indian/Alaska Native/Native American (AI/AN/NA) organizations are eligible to apply for Title X family planning services grants.

Read the full Funding Opportunity Announcement online.

See the application instructions for information about application due dates by service area.

Employment Opportunity: Project Specialist at the NPAIHB

The Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board is looking to fill a Project Specialist position in their NW Tribal Epidemiology Center Department. The Project Specialist reports directly to the Western Tribal Diabetes Program Project Director and the Monitoring the Abuse of Drugs NARCH Project Director. The Project Specialist is responsible for the promotion and collection of high quality health data for two projects.

The Full Job Announcement and the NPAIHB Job Application Form can be found online.

Resources

International Association for Suicide Prevention Resources for World Suicide Prevention Day

The International Association for Suicide Prevention’s World Suicide Prevention Day is September 10th, 2012. The day is an opportunity for all sectors of the community to join with the International Association for Suicide Prevention and the World Health Organization to focus public attention on the unacceptable burden and costs of suicidal behaviors with activities to promote understanding about suicide and highlight effective prevention activities.

Find more information about the activities that support World Suicide Prevention Day online.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration 2012 Toolkit Available

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) releases a new toolkit resource for September’s National Recovery Month. 2012 Join the Voices for Recovery: It's Worth It - National Recovery Month Toolkit assists in planning Recovery Month events and provides tools and educational materials to distribute in communities and during local events. The toolkit covers media outreach, targeted outreach, and resources, and includes real examples of people in recovery.

Download the digital version at no cost.

More reports, resources and other information can be found on the UIHI website, www.uhi.org

Urban Indian Health Institute
Seattle Indian Health Board
1225 S Weller St, Suite 510
Seattle, Washington 98144
(206) 812-3030