November 19, 2012

This e-mail is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this e-mail was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Funding Opportunity

AHRQ Conference Grant Program

The Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) announces its continued interest in supporting conferences through its Conference Grant Program. A conference is a symposium, seminar, workshop, or any other organized and formal meeting, whether conducted face-to-face or via the Internet, where individuals assemble (or meet virtually, e.g., through webinars) to exchange information and views or explore or clarify a defined subject, problem, or area of knowledge, whether or not a published report results from such meeting. AHRQ seeks to support conferences that help to further its mission to improve the quality, safety, efficiency, and effectiveness of health care for all Americans.
Award Amount: $35,000 annually
First Application Deadline: February 1, 2013

More information about AHRQ Conference Grant Program can be found online, including future grant deadlines.

---

Fellowship

2013 Scholarship to Undertake Graduate Certificate in MCH Epidemiology - University of Arizona

The Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health at the University of Arizona is offering 10-15 scholarships for the Graduate Certificate program in Maternal and Child Health (MCH) Epidemiology to MCH professionals working with American Indian and underserved communities nationally. These scholarships will be awarded for the year of 2013/2014. The program is offered entirely online with no travel requirements. All qualified applicants to the Graduate Certificate program in MCH Epidemiology will be considered for the scholarship.

Award Amount: $11,685
Application Deadline: March 1, 2013

More information about the Graduate Certificate program in MCH Epidemiology can be found online.

---

Training

Community Health Centers Uniform Data System 101 Webcast

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) will conduct a webcast on the Community Health Centers Uniform Data System (UDS). The presentation will include an overview of the core data set collected annually from grantees in HRSA’s primary care programs and a demonstration of the UDS Mapper tool. In addition, participants will develop an understanding of the 2011 data/trends and the practical applications of the UDS data reports.

Community Health Centers Uniform Data System 101
December 3, 2012: 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm (Eastern Time)

More information about the UDS Webcast can be found online.

---

Resources

Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium Healthy Native Families Bulletin

The Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium (ANTHC) releases the Healthy Native Families: Preventing Violence At All Ages bulletin. This bulletin is the first time that data on domestic and sexual violence affecting Alaska Native people of all ages is brought together in one place. Beginning with pregnancy, this bulletin takes us through the major stages of life, sharing the consequences of violence, how many people are affected, and Alaska-specific responses. To read the full bulletin and access other related resources, visit the ANTHC website’s Healthy Native Families page.

Office for Victims of Crime Brochure Series

The Office for Victims of Crime HELP Brochure Series provides a resource for victims of crime and the victim service providers that work with them every day. Each brochure defines a type of victimization; discusses what to do if you are the victim of this crime; and provides national resources for more information and assistance on where to go for help. The HELP Brochure Series is available online and can be downloaded and printed for distribution.

More reports, resources and other information can be found on the UIHI website, www.uhi.org