

Of everything we'll pass to the next generation, knowledge is the most important.

Ask your health provider about hepatitis vaccinations.

Viral hepatitis is a serious infection that attacks the liver. There are simple vaccinations available for hepatitis A and B, and are the best way to protect yourself and your loved ones. Talk with your provider for more information.

www.uihi.org