Resources and Opportunities

Provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute
A Division of the Seattle Indian Health Board

January 7, 2013

This e-mail is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this e-mail was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Announcements

UIHI Reproductive Health Article Published in the Maternal and Child Health Journal

The UIHI is pleased to announce the publication of “Reproductive Health and Sexual Violence Among Urban American Indian and Alaska Native Young Women: Select Findings from the National Survey of Family Growth (2002)” in the Maternal and Child Health Journal.

The article abstract can be found on the publisher’s website. Urban Indian Health
Organizations (UIHOs) can access the article through the National Institutes of Health (NIH) library. UIHO employees can obtain access to the NIH library by contacting Diane Cooper at cooperd@ors.od.nih.gov.

Employment Opportunity: The UIHI is Hiring for the Associate Director Position

This position is responsible for directing the efficient operation of the UIHI, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. The Associate Director for the UIHI is a Senior Manager responsible for the direct oversight, supervision, and planning for the effective operation of UIHI projects and programs.

The full Associate Director Position Announcement can be found on the Seattle Indian Health Board website. The position closes on January 31, 2013.

Funding Opportunity

American Association of Diabetes Educators Diabetes Prevention Program Grant

The American Association of Diabetes Educators (AADE) has funding opportunities available to organizations interested in participating in the AADE Diabetes Prevention Program. AADE plans to make awards to organizations that currently operate diabetes self-management education programs and are interested in addressing diabetes prevention in their local communities and delivering the Lifestyle Change Program.

Award Amount: At least $20,000 in funding (an initial $10,000 payment followed by two $5,000 payments)

Application Deadline: January 31, 2013

More information about the AADE Diabetes Prevention Program Grant can be found online.

Conference

12th Native Women and Men's Wellness Conference

The American Indian Institute at the University of Oklahoma is pleased to announce the 12th annual Native Women and Men's Wellness Conference. This year's conference theme is "In Balance" with a focus on restoring the mind, body and spirit. Conference focus areas include behavioral health, health promotion and disease prevention and wellness.

12th Native Women and Men's Wellness Conference
March 17-21, 2013
San Diego, CA

More information about the Native Women and Men's Wellness Conference can be found online.

Resource
HHS Safety in Clinical Settings Toolkit

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services's (HHS) CUSP toolkit includes training tools to make care safer by improving the foundation of how physicians, nurses and other clinical team members work together. The toolkit builds the capacity to address safety issues by combining clinical best practices and the science of safety. Created for clinicians by clinicians, the CUSP toolkit is modular and modifiable to meet individual unit needs. Each module includes teaching tools and resources to support change at the unit level.

More information about the CUSP Toolkit can be found online on the HHS's Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality website.

More reports, resources and other information can be found on the UIHI website, www.uhi.org

Urban Indian Health Institute
Seattle Indian Health Board
PO Box 3364
Seattle, Washington 98114
(206) 812-3030