Resources and Opportunities

Provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute
A Division of the Seattle Indian Health Board

December 23, 2013

This email is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this email was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Announcements

Happy Holidays and Happy New Year from the UIHI

The UIHI wishes you health and happiness for the holidays and the new year! We will be closed on December 24 and 25, 2013 and on January 1, 2014.

__________________________________

UIHI Executive Director Featured in Vision Maker Media Blog on the ACA
The UIHI's Executive Director, Ralph Forquera, was featured on Vision Maker Media's Election blog, written by UIHI Advisory Council member, Mark Trahant. The blog post, "Treaty or Not? The Affordable Care Act means new money for American Indian and Alaska Native health programs," focuses on how the Affordable Care Act will affect health insurance coverage for AI/ANs and the financial environment for AI/AN providers.

Read the full blog post on AI/ANs and the ACA online.

Resource

NIAMS National Multicultural Outreach Initiative AI/AN Health Planners

The National Institute of Arthritis and Musculoskeletal and Skin Diseases (NIAMS) created an e-toolkit to help support outreach efforts to multicultural communities, including American Indians and Alaska Natives. This resource includes print-ready health planners; templates for social media, presentations and other types of outreach; and an image gallery of photos from the planners that can be used in other materials.

Find the NIAMS Health Planners online.

Fellowship

Health Disparities Service Fellowship

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS), in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' (HHS) Office of Minority Health (OMH), is seeking a Survey Statistician, Social Scientist or Health Scientist for a Health Disparities Service Fellowship in NCHS' Office of the Center Director. The Fellow will develop a research program to examine health disparities using data from across the Center over a 2 year period.

Award Amount: The Fellow will receive a salary between $74,872 and $115,742, including benefits

Application Deadline: January 15, 2013

Find more information about the Health Disparities Service Fellowship online.

Find more reports, resources and other information on the UIHI website, www.uihi.org