Resources and Opportunities

Provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute
A Division of the Seattle Indian Health Board

January 13, 2014

This email is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this email was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Funding Opportunity

SAMHSA Circles of Care Mental Health and Wellness Grants

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Center for Mental Health Services is accepting applications for Planning and Developing Infrastructure to Improve the Mental Health and Wellness of Children, Youth and Families in American Indian/Alaska Natives (AI/AN) Communities grants. The purpose of this program is to provide tribal and urban Indian communities with tools and resources to plan and design a holistic, community-based, coordinated system of care approach to support mental health and wellness for children, youth and families.

Application Deadline: March 7, 2014
Award Amount: Up to $400,000 per year for up to 3 years

Find more information about the Circles of Care Mental Health and Wellness Grants online.

Fellowships

Maternal Child Health Careers/Research Initiatives for Student Enhancement Undergraduate Program

The Maternal and Child Health Careers/Research Initiatives for Student Enhancement (MCHC/RISE-UP) Program provides opportunities for enhanced public health and related training to eliminate health disparities and promote health equity. The MCHC/RISE-UP Program is a 10-week summer program. Three public health leadership experiences are offered including Clinical/Community, Community Engagement, and Advocacy and Research.

Application Deadline: January 31, 2014
Award Amount: $3,500 stipend, housing and round-trip travel for out-of-state students

Find more information about the MCHC/RISE-UP Program online.

Dr. James A. Ferguson Emerging Infectious Disease Fellowship Program

The Dr. James A. Ferguson Emerging Infectious Diseases Fellowship Program is a Centers for Disease Control and Prevention funded 9-week summer program providing educational and professional development opportunities for students from underrepresented populations and those interested in addressing health disparities related to infectious diseases. The Ferguson Fellowship Program also includes sponsorship to attend a national scientific meeting and sponsored membership to the American Public Health Association.

Application Deadline: January 31, 2014
Award Amount: $4,000 stipend, housing and round-trip travel for out-of-state students

Find more information about the Ferguson Fellowship Program online.

Public Health Leadership and Learning Undergraduate Student Success (PLLUSS) Program

The PLLUSS Program is a public health leadership and research program for undergraduate sophomore and junior students minoring or majoring in public health. The PLLUSS Program provides students with mentored public health research and community health activities, mentorship and professional development, especially in the area of promotion of health equity and the elimination of health disparities research.

Application Deadline: January 31, 2014
Award Amount: $4,900 stipend, housing and round-trip travel expenses for out-of-state students

Find more information about the Public Health Leadership and Learning Undergraduate Student Success Program online.

Find more reports, resources and other information on the UIHI website, www.uihi.org