Resources and Opportunities

Provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute
A Division of the Seattle Indian Health Board

April 21, 2014

This email is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this email was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Announcement

Urban Indian Public Health Trainee (Temporary)

The Urban Indian Health Institute (UIHI) is accepting applications for an Urban Indian Public Health Trainee as a temporary, part-time summer position. The Public Health Trainee position will support the UIHI, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board, in its core functions to support the health and well-being of urban Indian communities. The Public Health Trainee position is an opportunity for either a student or recent graduate to work at the UIHI over the summer to develop skills and knowledge aligned with the UIHI scope of work and based on the Trainee’s professional interests and abilities.

Qualified applicants will have a high school diploma/GED and be familiar with the health and social issues facing American Indians/Alaska Natives. Students and entry-level professionals either in a public health track or with a desire for exposure to the field are encouraged to apply.

For more information and to apply, please see the Get Involved page on the UIHI website.

Application Deadline: April 25, 2014

This position is funded until August 31, 2014. Salary is dependent on experience.

Find more information on the UIHI’s work on our website.

---

Training

Successful Teen Pregnancy Prevention: Connecting Clinical Care and Community Interventions Webinar

The Family Planning National Training Center for Service Delivery will be hosting a webinar on teen pregnancy prevention. In this webinar, Title X-funded family planning providers will share lessons learned about how to provide high quality clinical services to teens. Providers will also describe ways that clinical providers and community-based organizations that provide behavioral interventions can work together to reach and effectively serve teens in their communities.

April 22, 2014 3:00 p.m. - 4:15 p.m. (Eastern)
Registration Deadline: April 21, 2014

Find more information about the Successful Teen Pregnancy Prevention Webinar online.

---

Advancing Health Equity for Native American Youth Workshop

The Roundtable on the Promotion of Health Equity and the Elimination of Health Disparities will hold its fifteenth workshop in Albuquerque, NM. This one-day public workshop will explore the challenges and opportunities facing Native American Youth today and how these challenges and opportunities affect health outcomes for Native youth.

May 6, 2014
Albuquerque, NM

Find more information about the Advancing Health Equity for Native American Youth Workshop online.

---

MAXIMUS Communications Tune-Up Webinar Series

MAXIMUS is hosting a series of free webinars that will focus on strategies for clear and effective print, digital and mobile communication. Experts from the Center for Health Literacy will share tips to make complicated information easier to read and understand. Each one-hour webinar will include a discussion forum for questions and answers.