May 27, 2014

This email is provided by the Urban Indian Health Institute, a division of the Seattle Indian Health Board. It contains opportunities for staff development, grant announcements and other relevant public health information. We hope you find these resources useful. If you have any questions about the information below, or you are unable to open any of the links, please contact info@uihi.org. If this email was forwarded to you, you may sign up here.

Funding Opportunities

Youth Empowerment Program II: (YEP II)

The YEP II focuses on the risk behaviors of at-risk minority male youth at critical stages in their lives, and improving long-term outcomes to increase the quality of their lives. Projects should address one or more of the following focus areas: 1) minority male youth violence (including gang violence); 2) teen pregnancy prevention education as it relates to males; 3) career preparation training that is appropriate for at-risk minority male youth; and 4) mentoring support services (education and/or college preparation).

Application deadline: June 13, 2014

For more information about YEP II, view the announcement online.

---

Partnerships to Increase Coverage in Communities Initiative

The Partnerships to Increase Coverage in Communities Initiative will provide funding to successful applicants to identify, recruit, and educate underserved minority populations about the Marketplace. The purpose of this funding opportunity is to enable organizations to assist these populations with completion of the health insurance application to determine their eligibility to purchase health insurance from a plan offered through the Marketplace or for Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

Application deadline: June 16, 2014

For more information about this opportunity, view the announcement online.

---

Announcement

Native Youth Leadership Camp

Pathkeepers for Indigenous Knowledge will host its Native Youth Leadership Camp in Culpeper, Virginia from July 20 to July 27, 2014. The camp will provide Native youth (ages 11 to 16 years old) with opportunities to experience traditional and cultural activities; identify healthy and sustainable food and life choices; and understand how environmental and conservation sciences are reflected in Native cultural knowledge. The camp will include a field trip to Washington, DC to tour and meet with federal agencies, Congressional staff, and White House officials related to Indian Affairs.

There is no fee to attend the camp.

Application deadline: June 1, 2014

View more information and access the application on the Native Youth Leadership Camp webpage.

---

Training

It Takes Two to Make a Baby: Engaging Males in Teen Pregnancy Prevention

Engaging men and boys in teen pregnancy prevention is critical. Join us to hear from JSI Research & Training Institute, Inc. about the significance of engaging males in teen pregnancy prevention and the social determinants that influence young men. The webinar will also showcase how three HHS grantees, The Village for Families and Children, Cicatelli Associates Inc., and Southeast Mississippi Rural Health, are engaging males in teen pregnancy prevention.
Learning Objectives:

- Describe strategies and best practices for engaging males in teen pregnancy prevention
- Discuss how social determinants affect young males
- Identify three examples of how organizations are engaging males in the prevention of teen pregnancy

Webinar date: May 28, 2014 at 2:00-3:30 pm Eastern Time

You can join the webinar directly by clicking here.

Find more reports, resources and other information on the UIHI website, www.uihi.org