After receiving your COVID-19 vaccine
Continue following local public health recommendations, which may include:

- wearing a mask*
- watching your distance
- washing hands

*It’s important to continue wearing a mask, even if you are vaccinated, around others that have not been vaccinated or are still waiting to receive the vaccine.